(b) Up to eight percent (8%) of proceeds received from the three percent (3%) sales tax imposed by the City of Salida shall be allocated to the Capital Improvement Fund to be used to provide Capital Improvements, as defined herein, other than Streets, as defined herein, or to pay debt service bonds or other obligations of the City issued to provide for such Capital Improvements. "Capital improvements" is defined as expenditures on items or improvements over $5,000 and with a useful life of longer than three (3) years, including, by way of example, machinery, vehicles, equipment, facilities and public improvements. For purposes of this Section, allowable expenditures from the Capital Improvement Fund include, but not be limited to: 1) paying the costs of acquiring or constructing any Capital Improvement; 2) acquiring land or equipment; 3) the costs associated with issuing bonds or other obligations; 4) the costs of capitalized interest and reserves; and 5) the costs of operating and maintaining the Capital Improvements to be provided.

(c) Up to two percent (2%) of the proceeds received from the three percent (3%) sales tax imposed by the City of Salida shall be allocated to the Economic Development Fund to be used, as approved by City Council, for Economic Development purposes. "Economic Development purposes" includes, but is not limited to, the creation of affordable and sustainable housing and to the support of efforts to improve the standard of living of the community through the creation of jobs, the support of innovation and new ideas, the creation of greater net wealth; and the improvements to quality of life.

(d) Any proceeds from the sales tax for restricted spending or special revenue funds which are received and not spent within the same fiscal year shall be retained in the fund to which it is deposited or allocated and spent only for the purposes defined for that fund in future years.

(e) All other proceeds received from the three percent (3%) sales tax imposed by the City of Salida shall be allocated to the General Fund for General Fund purposes as established by local, state or federal laws, rules, regulations or policy.
